

In response to proposal to change to a lower national standard for regulation of telephone solicitors: I have had the number of calls received drop to "0" since registering on the No Call List for the State Of Indiana. I do not wish to participate in a national program.